6/11/20 Provider Call Update

- DODD Rescinded Transportation Guidance
  - DODD has currently removed/rescinded all guidance regarding transportation and is currently working on a guidance for all transportation
  - DODD encourages providers to follow the guidance provided by The Ohio Department of Health, their local health department, and The Centers for Disease Control (CDC) related to the Transit Operators and people using transportation services
  - To see the full guidance and suggestions, please visit the full guidance here.

- DODD Guidance: Medication Administration
  - On March 18, 2020, guidance was issued to allow personnel to continue to administer medications and pursue renewal of their Medication Administration Certifications beyond the expiration date
  - The June 8, 2020, guidance came out to remind all personnel, providers, and RN Trainers; that this rule relief expires on August 1, 2020, for all certifications (Category 1, 2, and 3)
  - See the full guidance here.

- DODD Visitation Guidance
  - Waiver Visitation - the key takeaway is that homes need to discuss as a home and come to an agreement on their stance on visitation in and out of the home. See the full waiver visitation guidance here.
  - ICF Visitation - There are much more details to the ICF visitation guidance. One of the major notes is that it should be outdoor visits only. Please see the full guidance here.
  - Day Camps and Residential Camps Guidance

- Updated Guidance for Onboarding DSP’s
  - Accommodations made in March in regards to the onboard of DSP’s have been extended until further notice
  - See the 6/8 Memo Monday for more details

- “Are COVID-19 Waivers A Good Idea?”
  - We received guidance from attorneys with OACB and OPRA in regards to COVID-19 Waivers
    - For anyone who has thought of this or is doing this, the attorneys are saying that it may not be best for your staff
    - See the full guidance from the attorneys here.

- Payment Protection Program Flexibility Act of 2020
  - This new law will assist with some of the restriction placed on PPP loans
  - See full guidance here
  - More information about PPPFA

- Understanding Role of Guardian and Consent
  - A new course on DODD MyLearning has been released to explain what it means to provide consent, and shows how providers can support the people they serve or their guardians when providing consent. It is now available on DODD MyLearning and one Continuing Professional Development (CPD) unit is available

- Day Programs
  - If you are planning to resume services or reopen services, be sure to submit your Provider Assurance Forms to the state and Melissa Thompson (melissa.thompson@warrencountydd.org)
