Stay Up To Date with DODD Communications

The Ohio Department of Developmental Disabilities (DODD) remains dedicated to public health and safety in coordinating a response to coronavirus (COVID-19).

In order to ensure that you receive useful information and resources from DODD, please update your information in Constant Contact via this form. Your updated information will ensure that the department can effectively communicate to the people which the agency supports.

For additional updates, visit the Ohio Department of Health’s COVID-19 website and review the World Health Organization’s COVID-19 guidelines for the public.
